

Horses

Yung Lean

Four running horses pass by
I see the glance in your eyes
Nothing I hear is a surprise
And I wonder why, I wonder why you lie

Wild horses
Keep pulling me away from you
Divine forces
I leave the world behind, let dreams come true
Like a wild horse, yeah
You'll never catch up to what I do (You'll never catch up to wh at I do)
Wish that I could stay, but I gotta leave
Baby, you know that a wild horse gotta run free (Run free)

All dreams must come alive, then die
I smell the wind of change inside
Four yellow torches towards the sky
And I wonder why, I wonder why we cry

Wild horses
Keep pulling me away from you
Divine forces
Leave the world behind, let dreams come true
Like a wild horse, yeah (Woah, woah)
You'll never catch up to what I do (You'll never catch up to wh at I do)
Wish that I could stay, but I gotta leave (Woah, woah)
Baby, you know that a wild horse gotta run free (Run)

Like a wild horse, yeah
You'll never catch up to what I do
Wish that I could stay, but I gotta leave
Baby, you know that wild horse gotta run free
