

Might Not B

Yung Lean

Don't go wasting your emotions
Lay all your love on me
Don't go chasing your own roses
Nothing comes for free

Might not be such a bad idea if I never called you
If I never called you again, called you again
'Cause it might not be such a bad idea if I just stay
If I just stay right here

Like the pearly teardrops fall
Every year a few drops fall
It's not too early to make that call
Take the darkness out your heart
Let it go back to the start
'Cause there ain't no beginning, there ain't no start
Ain't no darkness without stars
Ain't no sunshine when she's gone, gone

Don't go wasting your emotions
Lay all your love on me
Don't go chasing your own roses
Nothing comes for free

I like when the world moves in slow motion
I'm awake when everyone's asleep
(I'm awake when everyone's asleep)
Sleepwalking through the garden
Hundred green roses on my feet
(Hundred green roses on my feet)

Might not be such a bad idea if I never called you
If I never called you again, called you again
'Cause it might not be such a bad idea if I just stay
If I just stay right here

Ooh (Might not be such a bad idea, might not be such a)
Ooh (Ooh-oooh, ooh-oooh, oh)
(The pearly teardrops fall, fall, fall, fall)
