Been through some shit and you'll never know (Never know)
So much pain but I won't let it show (I won't let it show)
I lost it all but I ain't let it go (I ain't let it go)
I heard it all but I ain't tell a soul (I ain't tell a soul)
And tomorrow may never call, so I love all my bros (I love all my bro s) Put my heart out, I made 'em feel it, and they can see my soul (They can see my soul)
Shit get hard tryna make it out, when you come from that road (When y

Life been movin' fast, pray I don't crash, I gotta take it slow (I go tta take it slow)

They wasn't down for me, they wasn't 'round for me when I was at my l ow
It felt like I wasn't comin' out that hole, I had to take it slow
I know some niggas ain't never comin' home, they caught an elbow
I seen Lil Domo bleed right in front of me, that shit took my soul
Call from Jugg, they say Lil Plug had died and he was at that store
Uh, gotta go hard, young nigga, don't fold
So much pain, this shit runnin' over
Sometimes I just need me a shoulder
Poppin' these Percs, they got me rollin'
I'm chasin' money, I'm focused
I told Lil Co we chosen

Just wish Lil Plug could see me now, I know he watchin', though Livin' for tomorrow, still in my past, can't seem to let it go
Won't understand how I feel, I done been down the road
I hit the booth, pour out my soul, I'm tryna let it go Scared to give my heart to a bitch 'cause I know shit for sure
Like I shorted on Nick, I seen my man catch the stand before
