BREAK ME DOWN

Yung Pinch

This life gonna break, gonna break me down
Too much on my mind, can't control it now
Stayed up late too many nights, the sun ain't going down
I been fucked up way too long, no, you can't save me now
This life gonna break, gonna break me down
Too much on my mind, can't control it now
Stayed up late too many nights, the sun ain't going down
I been fucked up way too long, no, you can't save me now

These are supposed to be the best years of my life
Don't know why they're proud of me, 'cause I ain't living right
Staying off of this balcony in the sky, I need advice
Smoking away my problems, roll it up, and I light
Used to think that this life would last forever
Bro poke me a lil' spice, it'll make you feel better
Every time I leave the house, gotta keep it together
Don't know where I gotta go, feeling trapped forever

This life gonna break, gonna break me down
Too much on my mind, can't control it now
Stayed up late too many nights, the sun ain't going down
I been fucked up way too long, no, you can't save me now
This life gonna break, gonna break me down
Too much on my mind, can't control it now
Stayed up late too many nights, the sun ain't going down
I been fucked up way too long, no, you can't save me now

You can't save me now
No, you can't save me now
She left me right here on the road
She left me for dead, left me for dead, and I cried away
