

CHANGE YOUR LIFE

Yung Pinch

I could change your life
I can change your life yeah

Aye so what it is babe
Come be my right hand
I wanna touch you in places that only I can
I wanna take you to places that only I can
I can see you laying all on an island
You know what it is babe
Lets catch a flight then
We can sit under the stars all night
And it only takes one phone call for me to change your life
Yeah baby I could put you on that plane tonight

I wanna see you blip out, top down with some diamonds
We could get a foreign car you could ride in
Baby you should fuck with me I'm the right man
I can have you layin' on the beach in some white sand
Black sand it don't matter cos these racks
And
I'm gon' make you forget about your last man
We gon' leave all of that drama in the past tense
Throw them 99 problems in the trash can

Lemme take away all the distractions
Let you focus on them pictures and them captions
Yeah, lights camera action
I can have you feeling ways you ain't imagine
Cos I been making millis on the back and
Tell me what's the dealy yeah I'm really really havin'
Took her from the city to a mansion
Baby girl you're way to pretty to be average

So what it is babe
Come be my right hand
I wanna touch you in places that only I can
I wanna take you to places that only I can
I can see you laying all on an island
You know what it is babe
Lets catch a flight then
We can sit under the stars all night
And it only takes one phone call for me to change your life
Yeah baby I could put you on that plane tonight

Look, I ain't fucking with these bitches they be cappin'
She ain't giving out them digits to no has been
Plus I ain't tripping if she did, I ain't asking
Been a minute since they hit it with some passion
There ain't no comparing me to no one
Go to Paris for a week show you fashion
Red carpets, new garments, we swaging
True artist, the hardest, g wagon
Ain't no half ass music
The shit we on have you back and movin'
Put a beat on and I'm rappin' to it, yeah
When you shakin' put your back in to it

So what it is babe
Come be my right hand
I wanna touch you in places that only I can
I wanna take you to places that only I can
I can see you laying all on an island
You know what it is babe
Lets catch a flight then
We can sit under the stars all night
And it only takes one phone call for me to change your life
Yeah baby I could put you on that plane tonight
