

I Remember

Yung Pinch

Matics on the wave

BL$$D

Yeah

Remember we'd pretend all the time, I was sure she was mine

Yung Pinch and his woes

I remember we'd pretend how we'd always tell the truth

I remember when you said I would always be with you

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

Left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust

Went and got some fame, now I see what it does

People I used to be cool with don't treat me like we was

Everything changed, now I don't know what's up

You left me with no choice, no choice

You left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust

You left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust

I remember we'd pretend how we'd always tell the truth

I remember when you said I would always be with you

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

Remember we'd pretend all the time, I was sure yours, you was mine

It was cold, it was fine back then, yeah, yeah

Now you're gone with the wind, might not hear from you again

Keep reminiscing on the past, yeah, all I wanted was a friend

Pull up on you after class, you just have to tell me when

Shit can happen so fast, yeah, I ain't know it back then

But life change in a year, flights change [?]

In a couple nights, I ain't slept, no, I wish you was still here

Feel the pain in my chest, lost a piece of me when you left, yeah

I been facing all my fears now, I been gettin' used to death

Aye, aye, another brother gone too soon

I'll see you when I see you, hope that God got room

And 'til that day, I do it all for you

Forever in our hearts since forever came too soon

Yeah, now we so far, so far away

Look up at the stars, the stars on my neck

Matics on the wave, BL$$D

I know you so far, so far away

But I done seen it all fall into place, yeah

Let it all fall into place

Even though we far, far away

I remember we'd pretend how we'd always tell the truth

I remember when you said I would always be with you

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

Left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust

Went and got some fame, now I see what it does

People I used to be cool with don't treat me like we was

Everything changed, now I don't know what's up

You left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust
You left me with no choice but to leave you in the dust

I remember we'd pretend how we'd always tell the truth
I remember when you said I would always be with you
I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon
I knew forever had to end, never thought it'd be so soon

Remember we'd pretend all the time, I was sure yours, you was mine
It was cold, it was fine back then
