

Just Like U

Yung Pinch

I met someone new, she's just like you
She does all the things you use to do
She tries so hard to get attention
Hides her heart, she's independent
But after all she's just pretending
Like you

So keep acting over me
I see past your poker face
You're knee deep in a river full of tears
Just trying find love in a hopeless place
From the ocean to the valley
She'll be happy
Chasing waterfalls
And I'll be okay after all along
But if I don't try
Then you start to show affection
Once the scars and imperfections bleed through
And this time, I might
Grab my phone, delete your number
Leave you 'lone until the summer
Goodbye

I met someone new, she's just like you
She does all the things you used to
She tries so hard to get attention
Hides her heart, she's independent
But after all she's just pretending
