

Nothing Left

Yung Pinch

Ohh woaaah
Yeah yeah

She said that before designer, baby
All I want is loyalty
But sometimes you can't get
What you want, girl
Unfortunately
It's a little late
I gave all my heart can take
You can't fix it once it breaks, babe
Nothing left to say a thing
Nothing left to say
Oh no no no
There ain't nothing left to say
Oh no no no
There ain't nothing left to say, girl
This love is destroying me
Imma just have to go spoil me
Oh no no no
Oh no no no

Remember when my old girl said she wanted all my dreams to come true
She said 'I want you to be happy, baby, do what you do
And one day I hope that you make it, hope that they gonna consume'
That was the same year that I made it and the same year she knew
Shawty just can't be with me
She end up leaving me
And whatever the reason be
No way to do this easily
But it's okay, put the blame on me
Yeah, I know I did you wrong
Baby shame on me
Gave you my heart and it caved on me
Now your new friends wanna say he's just the same old P (same old P), well
News flash, it's the same old me
Still the same one that you told you'd never change on me (yeah)
Guess what, shawty changed on me
Lost myself for a little, still the same old G

Always and forever never last that long
Only good thing that came out was all these fucking sad songs

She said that before designer, baby
All I want is loyalty
But sometimes you can't get
What you want, girl
Unfortunately
It's a little late
I gave all my heart can take
You can't fix it once it breaks, babe
Oh no no no

Oh no no no
There ain't nothing left to say, girl
This love is destroying me
Imma just have to go spoil me
Oh no no no
Oh no no no
