

Punk Heaven

Yung Pinch

We got an idiot as president
Someone put an end to this
Always talking for the hell of it
I think its irrelevant
We got an idiot as president
Will Someone put an end to this

They wonder why I'm screaming fuck the law
Riot it in the streets its a mosh pit
I heard there was a gun involved
They wanna know what I saw
But I ain't talking
I ain't saw shit

No,
Playing 21 questions like my ex's its obnoxious
48 hours till I'm on cut the nonsense
Baby I got real life problems
You don't want this
You don't want this
I been hanging out with the goons and goblins
Codeine in my goblet
Lately I been off it
Who know I would turn into a monster like the lockness
Baby don't leave
She see my neck is on freeze
On me they gone sleep
Layed in a den down full of the thieves yea
Don't worry about me
I got some tricks up my sleeve
Just a boy from the beach
They know me way over seas
Talking out in London
Talking all the way out in Spain
UK to the USA
Real life rockstar by the name

What u want
What u what u what u want
Ima rockstar

They always talking for the hell of it
I think its irrelevent
Got an idiot as president
Will someone put an end to this
They wonder why we live above the law
Riot in the streets its a mosh pit
I heard there was a gun involved
They wanna know what I saw
But I ain't talking
I ain't saw shit

You took your shot you couldn't let me be
Now I'm bleeding on the floor and they locking up the deputy Grandma saying rest in peace
Here lies another young boy who meant everything
There's Something so heavenly

Bout another losed life stopped short from the destiny
Remember what they said to me
Hands in the air you fuckin punk then they let it ring
