

Solid

Yung Pinch

Tell your momma and your daddy that you love them, yeah
Ooh, bi-big head on the beat
Look

Tell your momma and your daddy that you love them
Not everybody gets to tell them everything they need
You never know when your time really coming
You never know when your friends turn to enemies
Who gon' be there in the end when everybody leaves
I've been lookin deep within, trynna find some peace
But lately it's impossible
You know I'mma stay solid though
Cause I don't got an option
I don't got a choice
Parents were never married
So they don't need a divorce
Got it on my own
Find a way to make it last
Cause they gon' treat you different
When you're way bigger than cash
Wait until you get them checks right (yeah)
Now you out here trynna ball
Yeah, you trynna live your best life
Spending racks at the mall with your friends like
They don't know what it's like
When you got it on your own and you made it out the fight
First class on a flight
Poppin' up in different cities
Getting bitches everynight

Yeah, I've been there, done that
Never thought I would come back
Well I did once again
Just to show you where the fun's at
They don't wanna see me win
And I swear that I love that
Yeah, I swear that I love that
I swear that I love that
They don't wanna see me win
Yeah, I swear that I love that
I swear that I love that
They don't wanna see me win

Look
I'mma say that shit again
They don't wanna see me win
That's on god, they don't like
That I'm taking it all in
This the life that I live
Took a loss, make it right back (yeah)
It's the boy from the fucking beach
Before it all I have said who I was gonna be
Uninvolved with the trends I'm just doing me
Wood grain in the Benz, got the AMG (yeah)
This ain't just pretend, this ain't make believe
Used to have to hit my friends to get from A to B
The fact that I ain't dead be amazing me

Some crazy shit I did you would pay to see

Yeah, I've been there, done that
Never thought I would come back
Well I did once again
Just to show you where the fun's at
They don't wanna see me win
And I swear that I love that
Yeah, I swear that I love that
I swear that I love that
They don't wanna see me win
Yeah, I swear that I love that
I swear that I love that
They don't wanna see me win

Tell your momma and your daddy that you love them
Not everybody gets to tell them everything they need
You never know when your time really coming
You never know when your friends turn to enemies
(You never know when your friends turn to enemies)
