

Sunset

Yung Pinch

Rock star shorty know I beat it like a drum set
Please stop talking to me, girl, are you done yet?
Just tell me right now if you want this
I can't take much more of the nonsense
Let me take you to my city, have you been there?
Just give us some time alone and I'm in there
North side of the pier for the blunts yes
Yeah this sunset beach for the sunset

I hope you know I live this shit, I'm not just talkin' it
I came in here I whip my dog, I'm not just walkin' it
He make the darkest days for you, he smoke a lot of shit
He can't even see the sun no more the fog is blockin' it
I bet they still talk down on me and pay the cost quick
Fuck all the ones that doubted me, hope you still talkin' shit
It's that self-made only
Beamer or a Benz
Not too many friends
Need more time to spend

It's that self-made only
Couldn't do it on my own
Didn't do it with a loan
Really started with a dream
Now it's all about the cream
Life ain't really how it seems
Everybody 'bout themselves
Short all about the scene

Rock star shorty know I beat it like a drum set
Please stop talking to me, girl, are you done yet?
Just tell me right now if you want this
I can't take much more of the nonsense
Let me take you to my city, have you been there?
Just give us some time alone and I'm in there
North side of the pier for the blunts yes
Yeah this sunset beach for the sunset

That's for the sunset
Shorty know I beat it like a drum set
She done come four times and I ain't come yet
(Yeah, Yeah)
I'm on some real fly shit
Real guy shit
Tell my friends I love 'em cause we will die quick
That's why we can't look back
Too many girls in here
I swear I can't keep track
Look at these girls in here

They want us dead or in jail
So it's ghosts I fear
We were fuckin' around
Your girl loves me dear
I ain't comin' around unless the coast is clear
Rock star shorty know exactly how I rockin' now

Rock star shorty know I beat it like a drum set
Please stop talking to me, girl, are you done yet?
Just tell me right now if you want this
I can't take much more of the nonsense
Let me take you to my city, have you been there?
Just give us some time alone and I'm in there
North side of the pier for the blunts yes
Yeah this sunset beach for the sunset
