Change

Oh, won't you ever stay the same?
Old daggers in my heart
I almost forgot that I need you (Need you)

Pain

Oh, won't you heal me with your pain?
Slip right into my rubber brain
Almost forgot that I'm with you (With you)

And you know that I care for disaster
Higher the low with a packet of lies
Wired can no longer fold
You're fine fighting it all
And why do you sigh when you're walking?
I need you with wild-faced desire
I, I
I'm already shut in a shattered state
And I wish you'd stayed in my life

How I know every word that gets shouted and said about you
Nothing ever goes
Does that look like a good shot to you?
Are you ready, boy?

Change

Oh, nothing's better than a change
Another place to start
I'll never forget that I need you (Need you)

Trying to learn that you're tired of me
What have you got to inspire?
Ready to go, but there's no change
Who do you really admire?
Take it on the chin
When all you wanted to do was just be a clown
Well, so did I, yes
I follow your sound

And you know that I care for disaster
Higher the low with a packet of lies
Wired can no longer fold
You're fine fighting it all
And why do you sigh when you're walking?
I need you with wild-faced desire
I, I
I'm already shut in a shattered state
And I wish you'd stayed in my life

How I know every word that gets shouted and said about you
Nothing ever goes
Does that look like a good shot to you?
Are you ready, boy?
