YUNGBLUD

Tallulah knows that she's not the only one I'm holding close
On the low, I get vertigo from body overdose

So tell me your name and tell me your problems, I got the same
And I wanna get stuck between your teeth like cotton candy
So you remember me darling

I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know

I figured out that the modern world is turning the wrong way 'round
There's something about the way our bedsheets turn religion upside down
So we just have sex, to solve all our problems, let's do it again
And I wanna get stuck between your teeth like cotton candy
So you remember me darling

I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
Leave me in the morning although I don't wanna be on my own
I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know

I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
Leave me in the morning although I don't wanna be on my own
I'm losing myself in you, in you, in you, in you, in you, I know
