

Don't Go

YUNGBLUD

Fine then, I guess we're all out of time
When I say, "Fuck you!" I'm lying
I don't want you to go, go

Go home, 5 in the morning
Cursing your name like I'm better alone
Don't ask me if I believe me
You know I don't know

'Cause I can't fuckin' handle you fallin' in love with me
Damage all around now, I guess it's a part of me
I could run away, but there's nowhere I'd rather be
So, don't go

Fine then, I guess we're all out of time
When I say, "Fuck you!" I'm lying
I don't want you to go, go
I've been getting out of my mind
With everything I can find
'Cause I don't want you to go, go

Please don't answer my calls
When it's Tuesday and you know that I'm drunk and alone
I can't hear all about how I'm losing my glow

'Cause I can't fuckin' handle you fallin' in love with me
Damage all around now, I guess it's a part of me
I should invoice you for all of my therapy
So, don't go

Fine then, I guess we're all out of time
When I say, "Fuck you!" I'm lying
I don't want you to go, go
I've been getting out of my mind
With everything I can find
'Cause I don't want you to go, go

I don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
I don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
Don't want you to go

I don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
I don't want you to go
Don't want you to go
Don't want you to go

Fine then, I guess we're all out of time
When I say, "Fuck you!" I'm lying
I don't want you to go, go
I've been getting out of my mind
With everything I can find
'Cause I don't want you to go, go
