

Kill Somebody

YUNGBLUD

Today you made me feel irrelevant
Twisted my intelligence
Made it seem there's no brain in my head
I'm like a skeleton, can't shut my eyes

Right now I feel like I'm an alien
I'm so fucking dangerous
Cover up the evidence with medicine
I can't find the light

All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you
All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you

Today you turned me like a corkscrew
Filed me like a law suit
Put words in my mouth that I don't want you to
And I lost my clout

And my time is acting as my currency
You can't take that away from me
Treat the young with no accountability
Shoot me down

All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you
All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you

Right, right now I feel like an alien
Like I'm sitting in a state of perpetual frustration
Go on, shove me again, fuck with my head, leave me for dead
Please?
And yet you may think, you may think this is a metaphor
Something you've never heard before
A note I've found on the floor and then subconsciously pinned to the door
But then you motherfuckers could cross 'em out and I still won't believe what you thought

All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you

All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you
All I wanna do is kill somebody
Kill somebody, kill somebody like you
You, you, you, you
