

Lemonade

YUNGBLUD

They just squeeze my brain, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade
Head melting for days, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade

They say, "Go be an adult"
Where guns and knives are an antidote
To retain some kind of self-control
Sip amphetamine through a telescope
You erase all the calls from my telephone
No sense of smile, maybe tell a joke
Holdin' back your tears, singin' cynical
Syllables, yeah
Let's take a hit on a pipe dream
Was that fate or mistake? 'Cause that timing up
Yeah, that parts of my mind don't get much blood
Yeah, you want someone dead? Mummy, call me up
You look like a twisted Robin Hood
Do you take from the rich and the poor and us?
Wearin' diamond shoes when you walk your pugs
In a time you curate where there ain't no love

Where do I go when I'm alone, not on the phone?
When I am on my own (Gotta tell me that)

They just squeeze my brain, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade
Head melting for days, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade

Stopped takin' acid but still got a reflux
Eyes rip out from the socket to a teacup
Drink up, inside, look when they peep us
Jesus in the belly of the beast, but Outside, there's a war goin' on
On your front lawn, Black Hawks see the red dawn, horizon
Blind yet I'll rise and abidin' by laws of attraction
My thoughts still risin'
Thinkin', what type of knowledge don't sink in?
Life gives you lemons and my only thought is drinkin'
Percy, will I be alive or dead before thirty?
That's all that concerns me, early
Lemonade quenchin' my inner rage
When it takes to the stage way before they floorin' on my grave
Minute maid, let us set my soul ablaze
Onto each and every wave, put me in the water for the safe

They just squeeze my brain, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade
Head melting for days, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade
They just squeeze my brain, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade (Lemonade, lemonade)
Head melting for days, gettin' off on pain
Drippin' down your face like I'm lemonade
