

On and On

Yungeen Ace

430 in the morning you wanna go through my phone
I looked you dead in yo eyes I'm like bae what's going on Say my trust fucked up I been giving my all I guess it's ain't enough
My past you keeping bring up wanting to go on and on and on

Wanting to go on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on

Guess you got delay on happiness
Everyday we argue it's like we going through madness
Constantly texting my phone saying you seriously hate me
But it make sense I had a dream you replaced me

If you got a secret please don't make it obvious
Don't wanna end but baby please I'm tired of this Stuck in my thoughts I'm trying to snap right out of it
Don't wanna fight ain't trying to hit you physically
I watched my mamma get beat in front of me swiftly

Me eyes so traumatized I'm scared to see
Please don't leave
But if you do then you dead to me
Honestly I got morals can you honor me
Tell me please tell me one time you said you proud of me

Wanting to go on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on

My heart is telling me to stay
But my mind is telling me to go the other way
I'm trying to see should I listen to my brain
Baby I'm tripping
Take it like a man and I'm 'a keep this shit pimping

Don't be listening to them hoe-ass friends you got Telling you to leave me
On the low they really want what you got
Don't make it to easy
Our sex to great no you can't pay for affection
I let you ride my face before I enter your intersection

Get butterflies and goosebumps when I'm next to you
Still got the same intentions from when I first met you
Sorry if I didn't mention it but I wanna marry you
Sorry if my feelings do not show it but I cherish you

Wanting to go on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on and on
Wanting to go on and on and on
