

Comfortable

Yungen

One sec, take time
One step, at a time
No time for bad mind
Na-na, na, na, na

I wear my heart on my sleeve
But they'll rather see me bleed
Just to get a cut out of love for the P's
I put on all my G's before I spunk all these G's
Even on vacay I'm the one that over-sees
Started this wave, I got us all getting paid
I can get a butler with all the money that I make
Clean-hearted kid and I'mma take that to my grave
I used to dream a going plat when I used to have the braids
Damn, I got the whole ends buzzing
Now everybody's like a friend or a cousin
They didn't wanna know when I didn't have nothing
But thank God, I really took that and made it somethin'

We used to hang outside Tennessee
I can see right through your jealousy
Now your tryna drink out my Hennessy (Yeah)
Never thought I'd say, you'd be my frenemy
And so we're here right now
But I didn't picture this happening months ago
See I just wanna give my mumma sixty racks
We're all just tryna live comfortable
So would you still love me if I had no money?
Would you be up in my dm's if I looked all bummy? Yeah
And yet you're here right now
But don't be getting too comfortable, comfortable

I went to war and I found out my soldiers
When I needed guidance, I found out my orders
They said we never had drive
Now we whipping Range Rovers
Luis V loafers, Mercedes with chauffeurs
Ah this is the life that I prayed on
This is the wire, not everybody can be Avon
Not many of us they really came on and stayed on
I only met him last week, he's talking 'bout day ones
It's not that
Last year I really went to hell and I been on my anti shit since I got back
Took a couple knock-backs
I just kiss my teeth, they weren't here before
I was flossing and I got plaques
The bread and ting, I got that

We used to hang outside Tennessee
I can see right through your jealousy
Now your tryna drink out my Hennessy (Hennessy)
Never thought I'd say, you'd be my frenemy
And so we're here right now
But I didn't picture this happening months ago (Months ago)
See I just wanna give my mumma sixty racks (Sixty racks)
We're all just tryna live comfortable
So would you still love me if I had no money?

Would you be up in my dm's if I looked all bummy?
And yet you're here right now (And yet you're here right now)
But don't be getting too comfortable, comfortable

One sec, take time
One step, at a time
No time for bad mind
Na-na, na, na, na

Young and dumb, I almost ended up with nothing
Getting caught up in this passa, goin' court and getting someone judging me for being too direct
While all you keyboard warriors can keep on pushing buttons
Oi, straight up, I was milking this ting until it all turned sour
From being at the top to stressing over Radox in the shower
I used to do the most, now I'm just tryna be the boss
So when they thought I turned ghost, of course I came back with the power
It's funny how only now it's always my guy, my guy
How you my guy if your phone don't even connect to my Wi-Fi?
It's long, if you're my don, you my don
You know where were from, if it's on then it's on

We used to hang outside Tennessee
I can see right through your jealousy
Now your tryna drink out my Hennessy (Hennessy)
Never thought I'd say, you'd be my frenemy
And so we're here right now
But I didn't picture this happening months ago (Months ago)
See I just wanna give my mumma sixty racks (Sixty racks)
We're all just tryna live comfortable
So would you still love me if I had no money?
Would you be up in my dm's if I looked all bummy?
But don't be getting too comfortable, comfortable

One sec, take time
One step, at a time
No time for bad mind
Na-na, na, na, na

Gimme one sec, take time
One step, at a time
No time for bad mind
Na-na, na, na, na
