

Insomnia

Yungen

Just me and my crew, we rolling deep
Still in the hood, we know it's peak
I'm sippin' liquor, they blowing trees
So much on my mind that I can't go to sleep
Na, I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep, sleep
I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep

4am in the morning, shit running through my head
Yeah, this girl I'm with is mislead
Cause we stopped banging hours ago, why the hell's she still in my bed
Yeah she wanna jam, but that shit's fucking with my bread, bread
And I'm about my lizzie
Grey Goose and cranberry, RIP to my kidneys
Only with the fam, know they certified if they with me
One call to them badboys, man know it's no biggie
But, we ain't tryna show that
We ain't tryna promote that
Yeah I've been there, I ain't tryna go back
So my friends tell me don't hold back
So I do me, I've got groupies
Yeah this life's like the movie
Might cuff this link if she suits me
Cause it's the little things that move me
So I'm listening to Future, thinking about my past
Yeah, what's success without graft
Looking back on things I used to find serious and just laugh
Cause tonight I'm with my crew, we about to have a blast

Just me and my crew, we rolling deep
Still in the hood, we know it's peak
I'm sippin' liquor, they blowing trees
So much on my mind that I can't go to sleep
Na, I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep, sleep
I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep

Pink lemonade in that shisha
Sweetcorn on that pizza
Everybody's at Ham's yard and we arguing about FIFA
Yeah, same shit, different night
Got everybody in here but something's missing right
Yeah, I've got so much shit on my brain
I'm going through some shit at home and I'm still tryna balance that with the fame
These girls see me and lose their minds, how can I stay sane
But I know that they love rappers and they only here for the name
But, I ain't tryna beat that I don't wanna see that
Yeah I drop a new vid and get feedback
Yeah I've worked so hard I might relapse
But this is my dream
Me and my team
We in the Merc with the high beams
I done my first SB at nineteen

Now I'm twenty-one eating ice cream
While I'm kicking in the suite
Life is looking sweet
Yeah, with this lightie that I beat
Me, I'm a private person but I know this bird's due to tweet
It's about 5am and I can't sleep

Just me and my crew, we rolling deep
Still in the hood, we know it's peak
I'm sippin' liquor, they blowing trees
So much on my mind that I can't go to sleep
Na, I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep, sleep
I've got insomnia, insomnia
Na, I can't sleep
