

Anymore

Yves Larock

Pictures of you hunting me I can chase your face out of my memory. But since you left i don't know there's my lifeworth soul cause i'm lonely since you told me i should go.

I'm sad and afraid I'm sad since you say. The love is not there anymore

I'm sad and afraid I'm sad since you say. The love is not there anymore

Could you forgive and could you change In my direction re-arrange My life to please you Start again. But since you left i don't know there's my lifeworth soul cause i'm lonely since you told me i should go.

I'm sad and afraid I'm sad since you say. The love is not there anymore

I realise Today i see You will Never come back To me...

I'm sad and afraid I'm sad since you say. The love is not there anymore

I'm sad and afraid I'm sad since you say. The love is not there anymore
