Father

You make me wanna be a father
Tonight I think I need some love girl would you answer?
I buy you rings cause you ring me up
Girl I'm heartbroken Ima need more than a plaster
And my trainers they were beat down
You're proud of me I'm proud of you then we go Prada
And I don't write shit I just freestyle
I pour my heart out then I think about it after

Gotta be cautious when you're out on that pavement
Gotta take it cautious cause I know it ain't safe
Even gave him grub should have known he was a snake
Bitch ass nigga went and killed our own mate
She said you've been ghost, went and snapped in the wraith
I don't entertain it put her back in her place
Get that paranoia so I like my own space
Yesterday was good but I like who I am today
Dissin on my dead friends I smoke yours to the face
I pray lord forgive me my life to him I gave Girl it's so good, numbin if you don't shave
Girl I'm still hood, still stuck in my ways
So when I hear the sirens I still get Harlem Shakes
But I'm en route, I'd just like to end ways
I just wanna hear you say my name
I just wanna feel that love again

You make me wanna be a father
Tonight I think I need some love girl would you answer?
I buy you rings cause you ring me up
Girl I'm heartbroken Ima need more than a plaster
And my trainers they were beat down
You're proud of me I'm proud of you then we go Prada
And I don't write shit I just freestyle
I pour my heart out then I think about it after

What the fuck you showin me? This ain't love
I put ice on all my wrists like a nurse does
You were sposed to be here but your time's up
Now I just go past you like the time does
Ooh, she let me dive in it, I feel like a scuba man
She gon let me slide in it, slip in it by accident
I got older tings so all the mandem call me cougar man
I feel that they get me when we talk like cause they been thru it
Say you love me, not not show me
She wants more please, but I need me
Knock, knock? Who's this? No joke, free Ginge
I remember playin knock down drinks
Come and show your best side, won't judge you, no
As long as it's your real side, there's no right or wrongs
I'm comin from a pot night, Ima need that warmth
I told her we'll be alright, you were right I know

You make me wanna be a father
Tonight I think I need some love girl would you answer?
I buy you rings cause you ring me up

Girl I'm heartbroken Ima need more than a plaster
And my trainers they were beat down
You're proud of me I'm proud of you then we go Prada
And I don't write shit I just freestyle
I pour my heart out then I think about it after
