Put my hands together, prayin' then I felt strong
I just ask Him for forgiveness and protection
I rock Supreme, Virgil Abloh and some diamonds
Only baddies and the realest in my section

I put my soul into this music, I ain't got a choice
They told me "Careful how you're rappin', now you've got a voice"
'Cause when it comes to parents, teachers, they ain't listening
Where I'm from you get your back stabbed literally
You can see he made some change
But the boy still stayed the same
And these niggas stay schemin' like Rick Ross and Drizzy Drake
I don't ever dwell on yesterday, I thank God for today
Hasbro came home and he told me
"Bro, you was all over the take"
I just asked her can we film it, can we put it on a tape, please
Hit me when I'm down, I know that you tried to break me
We was paranoid in Toronto with the 30
Look at how they did Pop Smoke so dirty
She got pressure on the back
So her clit, I pressured that I just told her to relax and I can't even do that
Only ever holler when I'm late on Snap
Niggas worse than bitches, run a money man

Put my hands together, prayin' then I felt strong
I just ask Him for forgiveness and protection
I rock Supreme, Virgil Abloh and some diamonds
Only baddies and the realest in my section

Who would've known?
Who would've known, we would've come?
You looked down on me, you did, on my come up
He was here when it was lit, like the sun's up
And when it went you disappear like a shadow
Airbnb condos
Fill it up, Gelato
White girl, black girl, Oreo
I'ma need me both of those
When I hit the stage, they say my name and it still give me creeps
When I hear my verses, I get flashbacks of a vivid scene
Walk in stores like "Give me these"
Bought a crib, my major keys
I'ma make a DVD, my life is a movie
So if you're gonna act to play a role around me
Gonna need some oil money, like with Saudi
I don't know a woman that can call me a fake

And I don't know a man that can call me a snake
Unless that boy got slimed on
I can't slime on my love
She just threw a tantrum
Make me say "Oh my gosh"

Put my hands together, prayin' then I felt strong
I just ask Him for forgiveness and protection
I rock Supreme, Virgil Abloh and some diamonds
Only baddies and the realest in my section
