

Heather

Zac Brown Band

If you notice things aren't what they seem
I drink to give you less meaning
You're my Friday, Saturday, and Sunday
Without you it's always Monday

So don't walk away
I'm sure the pain will go away

Heather, I think we had a strong love
Under the garbage we can't rise above
And I heard a knock
Oh it was you
Since you've been gone you have no idea what I've been through

So don't walk away
Just stay, give me one more day

I'm frozen
My eyes on the ceiling
I can't breathe when I've this feeling
So goodbye, this dance is over.
I'm so sad I won't be the one to hold her

Yeah don't, don't walk away
Just stay. Give me one more day
Just give me one more day
And I heard a knock
Oh, it was you
