

Thank You for Loving Her

Zac Brown Band

Thank you for loving her
The way I tried to do
Feels so wrong
It's like a piece of me is gone
But I
I'm glad that she found you

Don't try to hold too tight
She's like a butterfly
Learned the hardest way
Her kind of wild can't be tamed
I just made her colors fade into a blur

Both of us were breaking
Felt like we were dying
I still see her make-up
Running when she's crying
I'd rather see her smiling again
'Cause that's what she deserves
Thank you for loving her

Her roots are in the wind
And you can't fence her in
And if you try
She'll wilt and die before your eyes
Don't make the same mistakes I did

Both of us were breaking
Felt like we were dying
I still see her make-up
Running when she's crying
I'd rather see her smiling again
'Cause that's what she deserves
Thank you for loving her

I'd rather see her smiling again
No matter how it hurts
Thank you for loving her

Both of us were breaking
Felt like we were dying
I still see her make-up
Running when she's crying
I'd rather see her smiling again
That's what she deserves
Thank you for loving her
