Yeah, we scream into the sky
We will never die, we will never die
Scream into the sky (We), we will never die

(Are) Young and invincible, (We are) young and invincible
Riding around the town, bumping our music loud
Emptying bank accounts
(We are) young and invincible, (We are) young and invincible
Riding around the town, bumping our music loud
Emptying bank accounts

Who are you to tell me if I'm living wrong or right?
Who are you to tell me if I'm living wrong or right?

Young and invincible, (We are) young and invincible
Riding around the town, bumping our music loud
Emptying bank accounts
(We are) young and invincible, (We are) young and invincible
Riding around the town, bumping our music loud
Emptying bank accounts

Who are you, uh, to tell me (Flying high)
Who are you, uh, to tell me (Flying high)
Who are you, who are you
