You changed so much
You're just somebody I used to know, my love
I've missed your touch (I've missed you, girl)
I feel like maybe this time around it'll last (Oh)
Oh, don't you go
Now that you're home, baby, don't leave so soon
Oh, don't you know?
There's something 'bout you, something when we're alone

You changed so much
You're just somebody I used to know, my love
I've missed your touch (I've missed you, girl)
I feel like maybe this time around it'll last (Oh)
Oh, don't you go
Now that you're home, baby, don't leave so soon
Oh, don't you know?
There's something 'bout you, something when we're alone

Now pretty girl you made your return
So fuck up my world
Now fuck, you're my girl
I know this one'll hurt
If things ever burn
So stay in my world

Understand that there's nobody else but you
Give me those eyes, baby, you know I can't refuse
I'm terrified that I'm gonna loose out on you
We've done this twice, baby, I'm not losing you this

Now pretty girl, when we running it up?
MDMA is your name, is it not?
Oh, your blue eyes, kiss me blue eyes
Now pretty girl, don't you fuck it all up
Waited a few years, now we all grown up
Oh, your blue eyes, kiss me blue eyes
