

missin something

Zach Templar

(Now you're gone)
(Whoa, ah-ah-ah, yeah, uh)

I know you see her in me
You're in my head, girl, just don't leave
I know I fucked up, but baby please
Oh was I never enough?
I thought I'm all you wanted

Nothing I can do
All I want is you (girl, something is wrong)
I've got a feeling, babe
I'm missing something (you're all that I want)
All I did for you
Everything I do (girl, something is wrong)
I've got a feeling, babe
You're not worth loving (you're all that I want)

And my obsession, it just won't do
'Cause all the things you did to me
You know that I
Shouldn't even be here
I don't know what I see in you
But it ain't true

Nothing I can do
All I want is you (girl, something is wrong)
I've got a feeling, babe
I'm missing something (you're all that I want)
All I did for you
Everything I do
I've got a feeling, babe
You're not worth loving

There's nothing I can do to change your mind
And everything we did is laid behind
And all the things I do to love you, girl
But still you don't seem to make it work
(Room full of lust)
But I'm sick of us
'Cause at times like now
I think about the things we used to do, ah
