Tell me what you want? (You want girl)
Summer skies and Love? (love, love, love)
Flowers on your tongue (run)
Your words sounding fun (run)
Inviting for some (love, love, love)

Call me when I'm on your mind
Love me tho I might be blind
Warned me but you still come find me
Somethings bound, bound, bound to happen now

Eyes, in your eyes in your eyes
I know that it's you
Lie through your tooth

Eyes, in your eyes in your eyes
They don't lie
Cent blue eyes

Used to love me used to want me
Now you're stuck on somebody else
You been crying used to lying
Closed inside got no one to tell

Mind on your mind on your mind
Blue like the sky
Don't look me nice

Eyes, in your eyes in your eyes
I'll keep high
To stay fine

Used to love me used to want me
Now you're stuck on somebody else
You been crying used to lying
Closed inside got no one to tell

Used to love me used to want me
Now you're stuck on somebody else
You been crying used to lying
Closed inside got no one to tell

Baby, you don't want nothing to do with me
I guess I'll loose, I guess I'll lose you
Maybe if you thought about what you do
Then I'd still be with you, still be with you

In waves, you're kissing me slow
Intertwined by your tongue
Whilst your mind is drifting to another
Still I'll stay another
You have lost, you have lost me
In waves
