In a World Gone Wrong

Zach Top

It's been turnin' round a million years
But in what little bit of time that I've been here
You're the only thing that's gone right
In a world gone wrong

I've seen fire... hell on earth
Felt the rain try to wash away the hurt
But you're the only thing that's gone right
In a world gone wrong

Just one look at you and it's all better
Girl, you hold me all together
You're the rock that I keep rollin' to
Sittin' here with you tonight
Once again I realize
Every good thing in my life points straight to you

Been lied to... been let down
Had dreams and plans that never quite worked out
You're the only thing that's gone right
In a world gone wrong

Just one look at you and it's all better
Girl, you hold me all together
You're the rock that I keep rollin' to
Sittin' here with you tonight
Once again I realize
Every good thing in my life points straight to you

It's been turnin' round a million years
But every trip around the sun it gets more clear
You're the only thing that's gone right
In a world gone wrong
You're the only thing that's gone right
In a world gone wrong
