

Everything Changed

Zach Williams

I was a dead man walking
Digging my own grave
Nowhere to turn bridges burn
Throwing my life away

I was a rebel running
Until I found my end
Right at the place
I heard your grace
Say I could start again

Everything changed
When I fell on my knees
Everything changed
When your love rescued me
From reckless and wild
To faith like a child
I was never the same
Everything changed

Rose up from the water
Free from my sin
Eyes open wide
Hands lifted high
Oh I was born again

I am free forever
Won't turn back no never
I was lost but now I'm found
