

Flesh And Bone (We Remember)

Zach Williams

There's an old wooden cross on top of a hill
There's a grave that's been empty for thousands of years
There is grace and forgiveness
At the table that He set
The Father's love, poured out for us
And we won't forget

Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember
Hearts of stone
Slaved in prison
Found their freedom
In surrender
The veil was torn
The gates swing open
The battle's won
The war is over
Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember

You never asked for anything
You just wanted our hearts
You say the price You paid for us was worth every scar
Still, You meet us with mercy in our shame and our sin
The Father's love, poured out for us
Again, and again

Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember
Hearts of stone
Slaved in prison
Found their freedom
In surrender
The veil was torn
The gates swing open
The battle's won
The war is over
Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember

Mm yeah
Oh, we remember
Yeah

Nothing can separate
What the good Lord brings together
If you know His love
Then raise your cup
Hallelujah, we remember

Nothing can separate
What the good Lord brings together
If you know His love
Then raise your cup
Hallelujah, we remember

Nothing can separate
What the good Lord brings together
If you know His love
Then raise your cup
Hallelujah, we remember

Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember
Hearts of stone
Slaved in prison
Found their freedom
In surrender
The veil was torn
The gates swing open
The battle's won
The war is over
Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember

Flesh and bone
Blood and timber
Bread and wine
We remember
