

Can you tell me how the hell you moved on
From all the lies you told me when we were in love
Why'd you have to tell me all those promises
And leave me out of nowhere after all of this
Can you tell me that you love me one more time
I don't care if it's gonna be another lie

Baby don't you know
I gave you everything but I still lose
I try to get back up
But I keep falling when I think about you
Baby now I'm here
Crying alone and looking like a fool, oh
Why are you so cruel
Letting me believe your love was true, oh

I can't imagine you loving someone else
I know he's touching you 'cause I'm no longer there
How can you forget everything about us
Remember when you even told me baby I'm your first and last
And baby I did not expect you'd leave me in the cold

Baby don't you know
I gave you everything but I still lose
I try to get back up
But I keep falling when I think about you
Baby now I'm here
Crying alone and looking like a fool, oh
Why are you so cruel
Letting me believe your love was true
(After all I did for you)

How cruel is your heart

(Baby don't you know)
I gave you everything but I still lose
(Baby I gave everything to you)
I try to get back up
(I gave you everything)
But I keep falling when I think about you
I gave you everything
Baby now I'm here
Crying alone and looking like a fool, oh
Why are you so cruel
Letting me believe your love was true
(Baby, yeah)
