

Elizabeth

Zack Tabudlo

She's the girl worth dying for
And the type you can't ignore
The fact that she has my heart chained to her soul

I can't control myself
I hate it when she's with someone else
It hurts my heart looking at them
Call me obsessed, but I don't care

Elizabeth, oh baby, take my hand
Tell me now 'cause I need to understand
What's inside that heart of yours
I can't just guess
My mind will be a mess

I'm losing my dignity
And I think I'm going crazy
I've always loved you endlessly
I don't think you take me seriously

I did everything I could
Am I still not enough for you?
I don't know if you see me
You know I'm always here if you need me

Elizabeth, oh baby, just take my hand
Tell me now 'cause I need to understand
What's inside that heart of yours
I can't just guess
My mind will be a mess

I wanna run away with you from this world
Oh babe, I'll show you the love you've always deserved
Tell me what's inside that heart of yours
I can't just guess
My mind will be a mess

So tell me what's inside that heart of yours
Why don't you just admit it?
Elizabeth, what are you feeling?
One, two, three, oh
