First & Last

Zack Tabudlo

Pull me close
Kiss me hard
And tell me that you love me

Like how you wanted me before baby
When love was a myth
You came to my life at my lowest

But where did you go
We gave our promises in front of mama
In reality we werent for each other
My love was sincere for you baby
I had a feeling you faked yours maybe

You were my first and last
And you were my only chance
But I saw you with somebody new
Was I not good enough for you
I gave up everything just to be with you
Now I can't replace you

Do you still have the letter that I gave you
Or the flowers that I saved up just for you
Did you throw it away
Did it die like the way that our love did

And baby you know
That all I needed was assurance
Was I still asking for it too much
(I was overthink bout it too much)
What's your excuse to leave
I was begging you please
And I know you cheated
Are you scared to face the fact that
You couldn't tell me

You were my first and last
And you were my only chance
I saw you with somebody new
Was I not good enough for you
I gave up everything just to be with you
Now I can't replace you
