

SCREAM

Zack Tabudlo

I was walking by myself on a wednesday night
Til I saw a pretty woman alone
I thought she didn't need any help

But then something in me strange
Wanted to come out and fight
Ohh I couldn't describe
I know something was bout to get on

I'm not a fighter, I'm a lover at heart
But if you need me, I'll be right where you are
Baby come and tell me
Do you need somebody's help
If you need somebody scream
And shout as loud as you can
If I hear you crying
Don't be scared cuz I'll be there
Oh no one can hurt you
I'll be out there holding your hand

I can feel your heart pound
Getting through the night
I thought we wouldn't get by Trying my best to fight

All you really have to do is trust in me
Darling I'll be your shining armor
Hold me close and breathe

I'm not a fighter, I'm a lover at heart
But if you need me I'll be right where you are
Baby come and tell me
Do you need somebody's help
If you need somebody
Scream and shout as loud as you can
If I hear you crying
Don't be scared cuz I'll be there
Oh no one can hurt you
I'll be out there holding your hand

I'm not a fighter, I'm a lover at heart
But if you need me I'll be right where you are
Baby come and tell me
Do you need somebody's help
If you need somebody scream
And shout as loud as you can
If I hear you crying
Don't be scared cuz I'll be there
Oh no one can hurt you
I'll be out there holding your hand
