

superglue

Zack Tabudlo

Passing downtown, going home now
Grass is so much greener there
Someone somewhere prays for what I have
And I won't let go

All these memories in my head
Keep playing over again
Closest thing I have to Heaven

Oh, you
Will never understand that
I'm completely lost in you
Carve it in the pavement
Every little thing you do
Oh, it's you
Flower in my garden
I can't wait to watch you bloom
Well I'm a million pieces
Darling you're the superglue
Oh-oh, it's always you

Do ya miss me like I miss you
I keep praying that I can bring back time and space
And I need you right here by my side
Oh, baby I don't wanna say goodbye

'Cause, you
Will never understand that
I'm completely lost in you
Carve it in the pavement
Every little thing you do
Oh, it's you
Flower in my garden
I can't wait to watch you bloom
Well I'm a million pieces
Darling you're the superglue
Oh-oh, it's always you

Searching for the lesson
Head is filled with questions
Wondering why we're here
And where we're going, what it means
Then I look in your eyes
Questions seem to subside
Maybe life and death should always stay a mystery
But I'm starting to see

It's you
Flower in my garden
I can't wait to watch you bloom
When you're a million pieces
I could be your superglue
It's always you