

Take Me Back

Zack Tabudlo

Who the hell are you?
There's a stranger in my eyes
But she knows me (Knows me), knows me
There's something wrong in here
I need someone to help me
Understand this (Understand this)

Where'd you take my baby?
I'm losing my mind
I see her with your body
But your heart's missing inside
I'm tryna close my eyes
I know you're gone, my baby
But there's something in me fighting
(Fighting)

Take me back
Take me back to when we started
You pulled my heart
And didn't give a damn around us
You loved me hard, baby, where did it go?
Take me back to our love
When we were starting

You got me thinking about you now
Running on my mind
You said the things that I can't forget
'Bout it all the time
You got me acting crazy
Baby, you got me shook
I've never seen a lady
That has your pretty look
When I look in your eyes, I entered your mind
We're taking our time tonight
And I'm hypnotized by the gaze of your eyes
And I'm seeing paradise
With you in my arms, aku sayang
Ku takkan pernah buat sebarang
Rindu yang sekarang

Take me back
Take me back to when we started
You pulled my heart
And didn't give a damn around us
You loved me hard, baby, where did it go?
Take me back to our love
When we were starting

Take me back
Take me back to when we started
It was you and me
Against the world we never doubted
But I need you to go back
So take me back to our love
When we were starting
