

Turn Back Time

Zack Tabudlo

I don't know what's wrong
I'm not okay, I can't pretend when it's all gone
I'm sorry for everythin' that I've done
You know I've tried my best
Thinkin' you're the one, oh-oh

Days have been hard of sleepin' alone
When the sun's comin' down
Need someone to hold
I close my eyes, wishin' you're by my side
You know, I hate seein' you cry

What did I do this time?
Didn't I really try?
Gave all my love, all turned to dust
I'm losin' my mind
I'd rather have all the fights
Than all of the sleepless nights
Everything's rushed, I know I just lost
A piece of mine
Why can't we turn back time?

We had a love
Like no one can have
We gave our promises
Now, it's all in the past
Oh, we didn't stand a chance, didn't we, babe?
Our differences always get in our ways
It's sad, really thought we would last

Days have been hard of being alone (Being alone)
I don't know if I can handle the cold
So I close my eyes
Wishin' you're by my side
You know, I hate seein' you cry

What did I do this time?
Didn't I really try?
Gave all my love, all turned to dust
I'm losin' my mind
I'd rather have all the fights
Than all of the sleepless nights
Everything's rushed, (Oh) I know I just lost
A piece of mine
Why can't we turn back time?

Turn back time, ooh
Turn back time, ooh, ooh

What did I do this time?
Didn't I really try?
Gave all my love, all turned to dust
I'm losin' my mind
I'd rather have all the fights
Than all of the sleepless nights
Everything's rushed, I know I just lost
A piece of mine

Why can't we turn back time?
