Do I still cross your mind?
Do you think about me sometimes?
Cause you still cross my mind
Yeah, I think about you sometimes

Did you feel a thing the moment that you stopped loving me?
Or did it flicker out like a lightbulb in a room that you never go in
Feel it, the moment that you stopped loving me
Do I still cross your mind?
Oh, do I cross your mind?
Do you think about me sometimes?
When was it exactly that you stopped loving me?

2014 I had a flip phone
If you needed a ride, you could hit me up
Probably be late cause I'm an idiot
But you were my friend and that was good enough
(You were my friend and that was good enough)

In 2016 I got a iPhone
I went to New York and then I hit you up
Then we start talking for a few months
But when I reached out it was all good

Go back in time for a little bit
Would you change something about me?
I think I would
Cause I'd go back in time for you
Wouldn't change a thing about it

(Be there, ooo)
(Be there, ooo)
(Be there, ooo)
(Be there, ooo)
(Be there, ooo)
