

Super

Zack Villere

Head pieced together like a puzzle is (yeah)
I'm sitting down like a frog, warm, writing this (yeah)
And I've been better since we got involved
But lately I've been feeling all bad
I really wish that I can move back
But I won't, I won't, I won't

I might be super in love with you
You make me wanna take it all back
I might, I might (woah)

I touched your fingertip cause I was scared to hold your hand (woah)
When I kissed you upside-down I felt like Spiderman
You should know that I have sense over a lot of things (things)
And one of those is if we're meant to be (be)
Nobody knows, okay that's fine with me
I guess we'll feel it out, hope that things end up all right (yeah, yeah)

I might be super in love with you
You make me wanna take it all back
I might, I might (woah)

I might be super in love with you
You make me wanna take it all back
I might (oh)
I might (oh)
I might (woah)
