

Kiss her on the ear
And a turn around
She's bored to death
Just sitting there
Listen to your ramble on about
Things you've done
Things you'll do
Some other woman that you do self
You got a job to do

When she walks away
She moves a little bit expressself
It's just for you
You let me down
And you've ain't watching

You said please, she says maybe
She saying yes, just to play this day self
Oh self
She wants to love you

There's nothing you can say
You can talk all day
It's not words she needs now
It's just you she needs now

Self it's written in her eyes
She want's you to touch her now
No way [?] longer
Take her in your arms
Get close to her
She soft and warm
Self, oh self
She wants to love you

It's not words she needs now
It's just you she needs now
