

Beautiful Escape

Zak Abel

I feel you breathing down my neck
As the blood's rushing to my legs
Waiting for a chance to prove
That my soul, it belongs to you

I just wanna go there
I just want a beautiful escape
I just wanna move ya
Show you that this love is yours to take

And now we're driving, over
Fears that make us feel like we're not enough
Yeah, we're flying up, closer
Dancing on the edge of the world above
I was scared I couldn't show ya
All this lovin' that I hold inside
But now I feel your power
I am here, and I don't wanna hide
No more
Hmm, yeah, no more

Now I'm feeling like you're with me
As my heart's pouring on my sleeve
I don't want this rush to go
Oh I'm trying to let you know

I just wanna go there
I just want a beautiful escape
I just wanna move ya
I just wanna take you to that place

And now we're driving, over
Fears that make us feel like we're not enough
Yeah, we're flying up, closer
Dancing on the edge of the world above
I was scared I couldn't show ya
All this lovin' that I hold inside
But now I feel your power
I am here, and I don't wanna hide no more

No more, no more, no more, no more, no more
No more, no more, no more, no more, no more

And now we're driving, over
Fears that make us feel like we're not enough
Yeah, we're flying up, closer
Dancing on the edge of the world above
I was scared I couldn't show ya
All this lovin' that I hold inside
But now I feel your power
I am here, and I don't wanna hide no more

No more
