

Hey You (batch Of Lies)

Zakk Wylde

Out of touch, you're out of time
Left alone, yourself to find
Bound and chained by your silence
Things to be known if it awakens
Just where, where will it go now?
Hey, hey, you, what ya gonna do
When you open your eyes and you realize?
Hey, hey, you, what ya gonna do
That batch of lies was really the truth
The paranoia, the fear they're your friends
Wish to hear nothing while seeing all the same
Bound and chained by your silence
Things to be known if it awakens
Just where, where will it go now?
