I'm a broken man, do the best I can
Just like the water, turns the rocks to sand
I feel so empty, at least I can feel
I can't let it go, of the things I don't know

- I felt the fire burning within my soul I lost my mind and then I lost control
- Well is there freedom or is it state of mind I'm feeling anxious like running out of time I can't let it go, of the things I don't know
- I felt the fire burning within my soul
- I lost my mind and then I lost control
- I felt the fire burning within my soul
- I lost my mind and then I lost control
- Well are there answers to why I feel this way
  Will they remain questions and that's how they'll say
  I can't let it go, of the things I don't know
- I felt the tire burning within my soul
- I lost my mind and then I lost control
- I felt the tire burning within my soul
- I lost my mind and then I lost control
