

Back And Forth

Zara Larsson

It's complicated
But I'll be lying if I told you that I hate it
'Cause I love it
I love this situation
If anything it's strengthening our patience
I love it, I love it

You push and pull me, left and right
I do the same thing everytime
But end up in your bed every night (Oh, oh)
Where do you end, where do I start
Comin' and goin' where we want
But when it comes, it never stops

Oh, we keep going back, back, back, back, back and forth
Oh, we keep going back, back, back, back, back
Cause we always want more
Yeah, we keep going back, back, back, back, back and forth
Yeah, we keep going back, back, back and forth
Cause we always want more (More)

Cause we always want more (We keep goin')
Cause we always want more
Cause we always want more (We keep goin' back)
Cause we always want more

Call me crazy
But the way you touch me is manipulating
Yet I love it
I love now we can break it
Thinking back of what we have is never fading
We rise above it and I love it

You push and pull me, left and right
I do the same thing everytime
But end up in your bed every night (Oh, oh)
Where do you end, where do I start
Comin' and goin' where we want
But when it comes, it never stops

Oh, we keep going back, back, back, back, back and forth
Oh, we keep going back, back, back, back, back
Cause we always want more
Yeah, we keep going back, back, back, back, back and forth
Yeah, we keep going back, back, back and forth
Cause we always want more (More)

Cause we always want more (We keep goin')
Cause we always want more
Cause we always want more (We keep goin' back)
Cause we always want more...

You push and pull me, left and right
I do the same thing everytime
But end up in your bed every night
Where do you end, where do I start
Comin' and goin' where we want

But when it comes, it never stops

We keep goin', we keep goin'

Back and forth

We keep goin', we keep goin'

Back and forth

We keep goin' back and forth

Cause we always want more
