

Can't Tame Her

Zara Larsson

Don't need no one, she can dance on her own
Club is closed soon but she ain't going home
Night is still young, where the hell will she go?
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Ain't the first time 'cause I've seen her before
Smell her perfume as she walks through the door
I wanna know where the hell will she go
Nobody knows, nobody, nobody knows

No, you can't tame the girl 'cause she runs her own world
So if she wanna party all night (All night)
No, you can't tame her, no
And you can't tie her down when the night comes around
Said she gonna party all night (All night)
And you can't change her, can't blame her, can't tame her

Can't tame her magic energy, she's so magnetic
Pulls you in every time (Every time), everytime (Every time)
But she don't care, she gonna do what she wants (She wants)
Because she never needed any reason (Reason)
Yeah, she a girl and she just wanna have fun, ooh-ooh-ooh
