

Move On

Zara Larsson

Ah ah ah
Hmm hmm hmm

It's like the air in my lungs
Like life support
Like a tight rope on this
I needed your love I needed your love
I was lost I was clueless
I was young I was dumb
Like I would never make it through this
I needed your love I needed your love

Though I depended on you
Like I ain't strong enough to live without you
Picking petals off a flowers at night
But now I got my head right oh

Cause its way too late to turn around ooh ooh
Cause baby you can't help with the way I want
So you're out of my head out of this bed
And while you're staying here bitching over mistakes
Imma move on move on
Move on move on

Baby you know I bleed oh oh
I'm the kind to get it how I live it
Don't wanna wait around
You want my love but I don't wanna give it

Tonight I depend on you
Like I ain't strong enough to live without you
Picking petals off a flower at night
But now I got my head right oh

Cause its way too late to turn around ooh ooh
Cause baby you can't help with the way I want
So you're out of my head out of this bed
And while you're staying here bitching over mistakes
Imma move on move on
Move on move on

I know you want me to stay
But I don't want you anymore
Turn off the lights ignores the drama I'm never coming back
So you're out of my head out of this bed
And while you're staying here bitching over mistakes
Out of my head out of my head out of my head

Cause its way too late to turn around ooh ooh
Cause baby you can't help with the way I want
So you're out of my head out of this bed
And while you're staying here bitching over mistakes
Imma move on move on
Move on move on

Picking petals off a flower at night
But now I got my head right oh

Picking petals off a flower at night
But now I got my head right
So you're out of my head out of this baby
And while you're staying here bitching over mistakes
Imma move on move on
Move on move on
