

Need Someone

Zara Larsson

I been living days like they'll never be over
As long as the sky is blue
But if I saw you side of the street, I'd pull over
Do things I thought I'd never do, do

Laying with the windows down
The seats bent back all the way down
Saturday, drive through sunset, music loud
I'm okay

Yeah, I'm happy, I don't need someone
I'm happy, I don't need your love
I'm happy, but I want you
Yeah, I'm happy, I don't need someone
I'm happy but I want you

I'm always stuck on the inside
Winter or the summer days
But you look so good in my sunshine
Now I can never look away

Laying with the windows down
The seats bent back all the way down
Saturday, drive through sunset, music loud
I'm okay

Yeah, I'm happy, I don't need someone
I'm happy, I don't need your love
I'm happy, but I want you
Yeah, I'm happy, I don't need someone
I'm happy but I want you

(I'm happy but I want you)

Laying with the windows down
The seats bent back all the way down
Saturday, drive through sunset, music loud
I'm okay

Yeah, I'm happy, I don't
Need someone
I'm happy, I don't need your love
I'm happy, but I want you
Yeah, I'm happy, I don't need someone
I'm happy but I want you

Run away, run, run, run away
(I'm happy, I don't need your love)
Run away, run, run, run away
(I'm happy, but I want you)
Run away, run, run, run away
(I'm happy, I don't need someone)
Run away, yeah
(I'm happy)
