

Poster Girl

Zara Larsson

I'm not a poster girl
Poster girl

I was focused on me
My own energy
Trying to negotiate the conflict in myself
It was all going fine
Till you changed my mind
Someone call a life boat 'cause I'm drowning in your vibe

I'm melting into you like water
Sleeping without you is getting harder
Melting in like water
Oh my God, oh God, somebody stop her

Holy smokes
I'm not the poster girl of feelings, but with you I can't stop
Holy smokes
I want that sweet organic healing on the tip of my tongue

All of our friends
Don't want us to end
I should've known better than bringing you around
Feeling the sparks
As you light up a room
I don't wanna come down off you too soon

I'm changing colors just like autumn
Sleeping without you is getting harder
Melting in like water
Oh my God, oh God, somebody stop her

Holy smokes
I'm not the poster girl of feelings, but with you I can't stop
Holy smokes
I want that sweet organic healing on the tip of my tongue

Do-do, do-do-ay
This isn't like me
Do-do, do-do-ay
You got me saying
Holy smokes
I'm not the poster girl of feelings, but with you I can't stop

Do-do, do-do-ay
This isn't like me
Do-do, do-do-ay
You got me saying
Melting in like water
Oh my God, my God, somebody stop her

Holy smokes
I'm not the poster girl of feelings, but with you I can't stop
Holy smokes
I want that sweet organic healing on the tip of my tongue

Do-do, do-do-ay

This isn't like me
Do-do, do-do-ay
You got me saying
Holy smokes
I'm not the poster girl of feelings, but with you I can't stop
