

Talk About Love

Zara Larsson

Patience is a virtue, I ain't tryna hurt you
I need you to read between the lines
Calling me out and it's unfair (So unfair)
Told you I don't wanna go there
Swear that I can taste it, all your expectations
Rising up, but push 'em to the side
You know I'm down to go anywhere
But I told you I don't wanna go there

I think you feel good, yeah, I think you're so sweet (Hey)
But you're takin' this all too seriously (Hey)
You can get close, swear I won't bite
Baby, look into my eyes

I don't wanna talk about love (Yeah)
I don't wanna talk about love (Yeah)
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta go get lost in emotion?
I don't wanna talk about love (Yeah)
I don't wanna talk about love (Yeah)
I can make your dreams come true overnight, yeah
I'll do anything that you like
But I won't talk about love

I don't wanna talk about love
I don't got time to be lying like a rug
Hot as Taki, Kawasaki, I ride it, ride it
Anaconda, yeah, baby, put your hand in my pocket
I ain't got time to be lyin', not to no throwaway
Shawty pussy wet, she try and drown me, I might float away
Can you please tell me I'm in control today?
Why you wanna talk about it all the time?
Keep it up over there, you gon' be mine
I see the way you vibin', keep me hypnotized and
Diamonds loud like sirens, oh

I don't wanna talk about love (Yeah, I don't wanna talk about love)
I don't wanna talk about love
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta go get lost in emotion?
I don't wanna talk about love
(I don't wanna talk about love, I don't wanna talk about love)
I don't wanna talk about love (Oh, no)
I can make your dreams come true overnight, yeah
I'll do anything that you like
But I won't talk about love

'Cause love always blows up in your face
And love always goes south in the worst ways
Yeah-eah-eah, yeah
But right now I'm not in that headspace
And this ain't the time or place to bring it up to me
'Cause honestly, I'll walk away

I don't wanna talk about love (I don't wanna talk about love)
I don't wanna talk about love (I don't wanna talk about love)

I just wanna keep us right here in the moment (Keep us right here, babe)
Why you gotta go get lost in emotion?
I don't wanna talk about love (I don't wanna talk about love)
I don't wanna talk about love (I don't wanna talk about love)
I can make your dreams come true overnight, yeah
I'll do anything that you like
But I won't talk about love (Hey)

(Don't wanna talk about love, I don't wanna)
(Don't wanna talk about love, I don't wanna)
I can make your dreams come true overnight, yeah
I'll do anything that you like
But I won't talk about love
